Yes, I do have a copy on Rev Godfrey's Journal. Thanks for asking.
It's a great piece of work. The Rev. Godfrey is my 1st cousin 5 generations removed. I am a direct descendent of his Uncle Godfrey, who is mentioned in the introduction.

I have been trying to determine the port of entry of the original Dreher to the USA, Johannas. Last night I found the following information at my local FHC.

"A List of German Immigrants to the American Colonies from Zweibruecken in the Palatinate", 1728-1749, edited by Wm. J. Hinke and John B. Stoudt

Page 113:

"OBERAMT MEISENHEIM.
1738. Johann Bartholmae, Bernhard Rauch, Gorg Gebhard, Johann Dreher, all of Desloch, Carl Neumann, Christtoph Berhard of Gallbach, Nickel Bauer of Jeckenbach, all seven leave for Pennsylvania."

(Note the name Rauch is supposed to be Johannas Dreher's wives name.
I don't know what OBERAMT MEISENHEIM means.)

"Pennsylvania German Pioneers, A Publication of the Original Lists of Arrivals In the Port of Philadelphia From 1727 to 1808", by Ralph B.
Strassburger, Edited by Wm. J. Hinke, Vol. I

I still have some photo copying to do. I ran out of time. This doesn't prove that it is the same "Johannas" Dreher, but it fits with the information I have. If it is him I now have a good date of entry and location. I also checked the New York information, without success.

If anyone has additional information regarding entry of the Dreher's to the

USA or anything else of interest I would be very interested in sharing information.

I would like to share information with someone on the following DREHER and related family lines. I do not know the port of entry or exactly when. The best I can figure, it was sometime between 1731 and 1760, based on birth dates. They first settled in SC,USA. I've searched many passenger lists without success. I don't know where to find naturalization records. Any suggestions would be appreciated.

I would gladly share information with anyone.
